

The Last of Rollins, Perhaps.

Great Combustion of Gas at the Capitol.

The Statement.

Three More Millions Piled on the People's Back.

A Specimen of Radical Economy.

do... do... do...

Special Dispatch in the Louisville Journal.

WASHINGTON, August 7, 1862.

The Radicals are lively Cabinet meeting to day over the case of Rollins. After a discussion of two hours, however, he was decided out, and the affair will doubtless end with this decision. There is much speculation as to his successor. Cammins and Jeffries seem ahead. Both had suggestions. A. J. is great on measures, but has a genius for making bad decisions as to men.

RADICAL NEGLIGENCE.

There was a terrible gas explosion at the Capitol to day. The gas arrangements have been neglected by many radical officials who are trying to pass off as to a leak about coppered nitro glass, to excuse their own dereliction of duty. The less will exceed tax than dollars.

AH!

McCulloch's statement of the public debt which was held back by him, and returned to the different heads of the department, with instructions that they should see if there was not some mistake in the statement of the amount, and this was done. The radicals will doubtless end with this decision. There is much speculation as to his successor. Cammins and Jeffries seem ahead. Both had suggestions. A. J. is great on measures, but has a genius for making bad decisions as to men.

KENTUCKY.

The result of the Kentucky election surprises the most sanguine Democrats, and is regarded as a foreshadowing of the Democratic ground-well that is steadily setting in all over the North.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

The political situation brightens every day. News from the Pacific represents gains for Seymour and Blair as certain in every State.

FOR HIM.

Some old fogey New York politicians recently telegraphed to Frank Blair asking him to moderate the tone of his speeches. His reply was decisive. He told them that he had studied the case carefully, though he understood it, and meant to treat it freely and fearlessly. It is said that Gov. Seymour is very much pleased with Gen. Blair's speeches.

THE CITY.

Our Terms.

The DAILY JOURNAL is delivered in the city at $1 per month, payable to the owner, or by mail at $5 per annum.

For payment.

Wm. T. Stansbury, Esq., Assistant Secretary of State, has our thanks for valuable services from that department.

Defered.

Several railroad communications are sent out of day's issues of the JOURNAL. They are filed for future publication.

Extraneous.

A most refreshing shower of rain fell upon our sultry town about eleven o'clock last night. It was accompanied by purifying lightning and a loud peal.

Where's the Pump Doctor?

General Thomas E. Bramlette and others addressed the Democracy of New Albany, and the Standard, Dr. E. E., candidate for Congress, spoke, in accordance with his appointment, at the Court-house. He had a very large audience, and his speech was quite effective.

Colored Billiards.

Last night two amateur billiard players, Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, a barber shop, and Napoleon Coons, played a match game of 500 points at Daxler's (e) hotel, Salmon, on Seventh street, the former being victorious by a large majority. Such is the progressive age.

On Thursday evening last a boy named George Mattern was drowned in the Ohio river, opposite the Champion Saw-mill, 2d and 3d streets. He had been a small, healthy child, and went out on the ice bathings, the time of the occurrence. We were informed that the body was recovered yesterday.

Negro Killed.

A negro man was killed yesterday near Ledges on 11th street, by a railroad train. He was lying on the tracks, when struck, and was killed before he recovered. His head was almost severed from his body. No identification was made to the authorities. The negro's death was caused by his own negligence.

Typhus at St. John's Church.

We understand that the Rev. Father Verdin, S. J., of Cincinnati, will preach morning and evening, during a Typhus which is to be celebrated at St. John's Church, on 11th and 12th streets, and Walnut street, commanding on Salmon street, next to 7th street. The reverend gentleman has a wide reputation as an effective pulpit orator.

Noteworthy.

On our way down Market street, between Fourth and Fifth, we were surprised to see the large store of Kinsella & Haydon so handomely and sumptuously draped in mourning, and the store closed, and we knew not what the sad occasion was. We were informed that the body was recovered yesterday.

The Concert.

Miss Baker and Miss Becker sang with a great deal of artistic finish effect the music of the day. The audience was evidently there to listen to them. They ought to be able to appreciate their true interest as well as we can. They will full well understand that we have a desire to make a noise, and to do a good turn for the community.

Mr. Farmer, Mr. Peters, Mr. Zeiler, and Mr. Haast were as always agreeable, and did everything for the benefit of the concert.

Wm. H. Hedin, solicitor, advertised for proposals for letting the house on St. James' Church, Pewee Valley.

The convention was called to order at half past eight o'clock. President George Morris was in the chair. The minutes of the previous session were read and approved. Section 8, legislative department of city government, was taken up, and in the absence of a report from the committee on appropriations, it was voted to adjourn to the next day.

Wm. H. Hedin, solicitor, advertised for proposals for letting the house on St. James' Church, Pewee Valley.

One of the largest funeral processions that ever marched through our city followed the remains of Father Spalding to the cemetery yesterday. It was almost impossible to estimate the number of persons who attended the services of the Cathedral at 9 o'clock, while a mass was said for the repose of his soul. The Rev. George H. Miller is his popular successor.

He was a true worker, always having the welfare of his people at heart. His wife, Mr. and Mrs. Spalding, were present at the services, and their sons, Mr. and Mrs. Spalding, were present.

Altogether the concert was a great success, and should be repeated by all means.
